FARRELL did knowingly exert unauthorized control over the property of the I-69 section 2 Project office manager, Ronnie Wilson to-wit: his personal checkbook, all of which was contrary to the form of the statutes in such cases made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the state of Indiana.

Count 5:

Comes now Brad Chandler who being duly sworn upon his oath says that on or about the dates stated below the said HUGH F. FARRELL, a person associated with Roadblock Earthfirst, an enterprise with the stated and actual objective of discouraging and/or obstructing the lawful construction of Interstate 69 through areas, including Pike County, Indiana, did knowingly with such objectives participate in activities of Roadblock Earthfirst through a pattern of Racketeering activity including two (2) or more of the following acts:

- a) On or about July 9, 2007, the said HUGH F. FARRELL did knowingly conspire and agree with members of Roadblock Earthfirst, to commit Intimidation via a self-described "office invasion" and "eviction" in violation of I.C. 35-45-2-1(a)(1), and such conspiracy being furthered by one or more of the following overt acts by the said HUGH F. FARRELL and/or other co-conspirators to-wit: the said HUGH F. FARRELL on June 11, 2007 planning and performing surveillance on the said I-69 Section 2 Project Office under the alias "Harry White", on July 9, 2007 forcibly removing office furniture, supplies and equipment from the I-69 Section 2 Project Office manned by Project manager, Ronnie Wilson, thereby through such actions communicating a threat to said person, all with the intent that the said Ronnie Wilson and/or other employees of the State of Indiana engage in conduct against said persons will to-wit: cease lawful business activities related to the construction of I-69 through areas, including Pike County, Indiana.
- b) On or about July 9, 2007, the said HUGH F. FARRELL did knowingly conspire and agree with members of Roadblock Earthfirst, to commit Intimidation via a self-described "office invasion" and "eviction" in violation of I.C. 35-45-2-1(a)(1), and such conspiracy being furthered by one or more of the following overt acts by the said HUGH F. FARRELL and/or other co-conspirators to-wit: forcibly removing supplies and equipment from the I-69 Section 1 Project Office, in Oakland City, Gibson County, manned by Project manager, Greg Curtis, thereby through such actions communicating a threat to said person, all with the intent that the said Greg Curtis and/or other employees of the State of Indiana engage in conduct against said person(s) will to-wit: cease lawful business activities related to the construction of I-69 through areas, including Pike County, Indiana.

- c) On or about July 9, 2007, the said HUGH F. FARRELL did knowingly commit Intimidation in violation of I.C. 35-45-2-1(a)(1) by forcibly removing office furniture, supplies and equipment from the I-69 Section 2 Project Office manned by Project manager, Ronnie Wilson, thereby through such actions communicating a threat to said person, all with the intent that the said Ronnie Wilson and/or other employees of the State of Indiana engage in conduct against said persons will to-wit: cease lawful business activities related to the construction of I-69 through areas, including Pike County, Indiana.
- d) On or about June 23, 2008, the said HUGH F. FARRELL did knowingly conspire and agree with other members of Roadblock Earthfirst to commit Intimidation, as prohibited by Indiana Code 35-45-2-1(a)(2), against law enforcement officers and officials from the Indiana Department of Natural Resources in retaliation for the lawful acts of one or more of such officers in removing members of Roadblock Earthfirst from a tree-sit in the path of planned construction of Interstate 69 at a location on section one of construction near Interstate 64, and the said conspiracy being culminated by the overt act of a placing an Internet blog on public internet sites stating to such officers and officials “ you will suffer the consequences” and “perhaps we’ll go to your homes, children’s daycare, churches or wherever else you turn your back”, all such statements an expression of intention to subject such officials and officers to criminal acts and/or unlawful injury and/or contempt in retaliation for lawful acts;

e) On or about August 21, 2008, the said HUGH F. FARRELL, as part of Roadblock Earthfirst with a group of associates, did commit Intimidation, with the intent to cause the disruption and termination of a lawful business meeting regarding the planning and/or construction of Interstate 69 through areas including Pike County, Indiana to-wit: the said HUGH F. FARRELL did knowingly intimidate members of the public at a lawful Interstate 69 informational meeting at Bloomington North High School in Monroe County, Indiana to-wit: by kicking over chairs, climbing on a table and shouting at members of the public, causing termination of the said meeting, all of which is contrary to the form of the statutes in such cases made and against the peace and dignity of the State of Indiana;

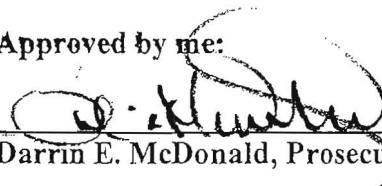

I AFFIRM UNDER PENALTIES FOR PERJURY, AS SPECIFIED BY I.C.

CLERK PIKE CIRCUIT COURT

CAUSE NO. 63C01 -0904-FC-00213
63C01-0904-MC-207

MOTION FOR TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLAR CASH ONLY BOND

Comes now the State of Indiana, by counsel, pursuant to Indiana Code 35-33-8-4(b)(1)(4)(5)(7) and (9) and respectfully requests that the court set bond in this cause in amount not less than $20,000 cash only and in support thereof now states:

1. Indiana code 35 -33-8-4(b) states in pertinent part:

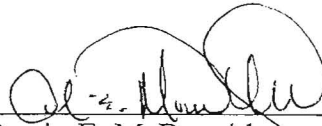

In setting and accepting an amount of bail, the judicial officer shall take into account all facts relevant to the risk nonappearance, including:

- (1) the length and character of the defendant's residence in the community;
- (2) the defendant's employment status and history and his ability to give bail;
- (3) the defendant's family ties and relationships;
- (4) the defendant's character, reputation, habits, and mental condition;
- (5) the defendant's criminal and juvenile record, insofar as it demonstrates instability and a disdain for the court's authority to bring him to trial;
- (6) the defendant's previous record of not responding to court appearances when required or with respect to flight to avoid criminal prosecution;
- (7) the nature and gravity of the offense and the potential penalty phase, insofar as the factors are relevant to the risk nonappearance;
- (8) the source of funds or property to be used to post bail . . . insofar as it affects risk nonappearance; and
- (9) any other factors, including evidence of instability and a disdain for authority, which might indicate that the defendant might not recognize and adhere to the authority of the court to bring him to trial.

2. The defendant is a resident of the state of Illinois, known to travel frequently including to locations outside of the continental United States. Indiana Code 35-33-8-4(b)(1).
3. The defendant has no known regular employment. Indiana Code 35-33-8-4(b)(1).
4. The defendant has no known family ties and/or relationships to persons in Pike County, Indiana. Indiana Code 35-33-8-4(b)(3).
5. The defendant's character and mental condition as documented through incidences such as the August 21, 2007 incident in which detective Tom Arvin witnessed the defendant shouting at a public meeting in Monroe County, Indiana demonstrates instability which should be considered in setting bond. Indiana Code 35-33-8-4(b)(4).
6. The defendant is known to use aliases, such as "Harry White".
7. The defendant has previous criminal convictions for Conversion and Theft out of Monroe County, Indiana and Cook County, Illinois respectively. Indiana Code 35-33-8-4(b)(5).
8. The underlying charges herein are serious in nature carrying penalties of imprisonment of up to eight years for the highest charge, a class C felony.
9. The defendant has been observed advocating literature and materials which advocate anarchy, property destruction and violence, including "Ecodefense: A Field Guide to Monkeywrenching or Recipes for Disaster: An Anarchist Cookbook." Indiana Code 35-33-8-4(b)(9).
10. The defendant's is known to be a leader of Roadblock Earthfirst, opposed to the construction of Interstate 69, which group's activities have resulted in excess of one hundred thousand dollars damage to legitimate business and law enforcement. Further such actions in violation of the Court's conditions of bond would likely result in massive economic loss which risk should be commensurate with the amount of bond set herein.

WHEREFORE, the State of Indiana, by counsel respectfully requests that this Court set bond in amount not less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for the defendant herein and for all other relief proper.

Respectfully Submitted,
